

New frontiers of the Relational Thinking in Psychoanalysis: Being and becoming, the suffering of individualism

Saturday March 19th 2022
Online on the Zoom platform

The conference aims to stimulate a discussion on some key themes of Michele Minoli's thought, brought to maturity in his latest book To Be and Become. The suffering of individualism (FrancoAngeli, 2015; Routledge, 2020).

The debate will involve esteemed colleagues: Gilles Lipovetsky on the relationship between the individual and society in the era of hyper-individualism and hyper-modernity; Steven Cooper on the concept of meta-theory in psychoanalysis; Nancy McWilliams on the diagnosis as a capacity of welcoming the human in its singularity and complexity.

*Simultaneous translation will be provided during the conference
